Draft Night will occur entirely on the on Sunday for which it is intended but it will take time to process and format the results. Players are encouraged but not required to attend the Season highlights which will serve as an ultimate debrief for the event and will occur on the Wednesday following the game. In this case, Wednesday August 5th. The Season Highlights debrief will be recorded for those who miss it.

After the season highlights, post-game summaries of how every team did will be distributed via the Discord and published collectively online.
